Friends,

This morning, LAUSD's Superintendent Ramon Cortines, took to the air to announce that he was closing down all schools effective immediately, due to bomb threats. We commend the school district for taking the appropriate measures to keep our children, teachers and administrators safe. However, this unforeseen situation might have caused childcare issues and disrupted work schedules in order to allow for pick up and drop off of children. I'd like to thank those people in the community that have stepped up to babysit for the remainder of the day.

Please note that children can be picked up by parents at designated reunion gates. Parents must bring proper ID to pick up children.

LAUSD will be broadcasting its second press conference to update the community at 10:00 AM. Please tune in to your local news station, or call this phone number for more information, (213) 241-2064.

Best,

Gilbert Cedillo
